MYSTERIOUS ELOPEMENT.

The little town of Can eron, in Marshall county, W. Va., about thirty miles from Wheeling, is greatly ex cited over a recent elopement, which it is feared has developed into a mysterious murder. Maud Chambers, the beautiful nineteen-year-old daughter of Benjamin Chambers, one of the wealth-iest farmers of the West Virginia Pan-handle, has been for some time a stu-dent at the California Normal School. There she made the acquaintance of a fellow-student, whose name is said to be James Scott. The story goes that the young people became enamored of each other almost upon first sight. Objec-tions to their union are said to have been made by the parents on each side, owing to the youthfulness of both, whereupon they planned to clope and lost no time in carrying out their intentions. From California they went to Cameron, where they were seen together two weeks ago, just before their departure for Chieago. They boarded the express, having, it is said, purchased tickets for the western city. Efforts were made by the parents to locate the young people, but without success. The parents then came to the conclusion to await developments, supposing that the elopers would marry in the West and return home or write telling of their whereabouts. As the Gives Relief at Once.

No intimation of the whereabouts of the missing couple has been developed, and the girl's friends fear that she may have been foully dealt with. SITUATION ON ISTHMUS. An important cablegram received at the Navy Department late yesterday afternoon from Captain McLean, of the Cincinnati, falls to indicate any improvement in the situation on the Isthmus of Panama. On the contrary, there is every reason to believe that another force of marines will be sent to Other force of marines with the seat to Colon within a few days. Orders have already been sent the Prairie, now at Boston, to hasten with the least pos-sible delay to League Island, for the purpose of completing the personnel of the ship's crew, and then go directly to Norfolk, where a force of about 600 marines has been mobilizing under in-structions from Secretary Moody. It is thought at the Bureau of Navigation that the Prairie will leave Boston not later than September 30. The serious-ness of the situation on the isthmus is fully apparent to the U. S. officials and they sought to provide a force large enough to remain on the isthmus until conditions there improve. The follow-ing statement was issued yesterday by the Navy Department: "A dispatch received this afternoon from Captain McLean says that while conditions are not seriously disturbed now, the present United States force cannot be withdrawn

Benjamin Wines, of Loudoun, who has become an adopted son of Clarke, had just finished cutting corn, and he thought of taking unto himself a wife. Attired in a nobby black suit broad-rimmed but army leggings and substantial med hat, army leggings and substantial footwear, with not much attention paid to haberdashery for the neck, he came to Berryville with Miss Margaret A. Williams. She was a perfect picture under a black hat, trimmed with red roses and fluffy-looking lace. After procuring the license the county clerk acted as errand boy, and he made a quick trip across several streets, fences and vacant lots for a preacher. At this juncture the prospective groom said he could not afford to cut corn at $1 per day and pay it just to get married. When there appeared no way out of it he gave over the dollar, and the marriage proceeded in the temple of justice. Latter they had a watermelon feast.
